

2. For the nature of offence, I am not inclined to consider prayer for anticipatory bail. However, without going into the contentious issues raised in these Applications, both these

Applications are disposed of by granting limited protection to the Applicants to enable the Applicants to apply for regular bail before the appropriate Court.

3. Applicants not to be arrested till 15th March 2005, on or before which date, the Applicants shall surrender before the appropriate Court and make application for regular bail, if so advised.

4. The Applicants shall give advance notice to the Investigating Officer before moving the appropriate Court for regular bail.

5. In the meantime, the Applicants to report to the concerned Investigating Officer daily between 5.00 p.m. to 7.00 p.m. till surrendering before the appropriate Court.

6. Applications disposed of on the above terms.

7. All concerned to act on an ordinary copy of this order, duly authenticated by the Office.
